Austin v. Tesla, et. al. Case #3:20-cv-00800

240 E. Channel St. #1354 Stockton, CA 95202, or alternatively

2107 Montauban Ct., Stockton, CA 95210

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 24(a), page 9 of United States of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit Office of the Clerk "After Opening Your Appeal: What You Need to Know," and the District Court's Previous Order, and Grant, of In Forma Pauperis Status for Plaintiff, and the fact that no one has revoked that status it appears that the filing, and subsequent fees qualify to be waived. In accord with the previously filed inquiry, and the following questions, and Court notice of a filing fee, and as a preventive measure Plaintiff is making a partial payment, from accounts, in his name, on his cards while clarification on the previous questions is being provided by the Court. Plaintiff Pro Se, and Attorney of Record, George Jarvis Austin, in the above named case, (Austin v. Tesla, et. al. 3:20-cv-00800) hereby requests the Court to clarify:

a. That in fact the Court has waived such fees?

b. If any amount is due the best method of electronic payment?
